I never tried one minute to be wealthy
I told them all since i was there
Please don't
Don't push that thing on me that i never want
I got to keep my head Ocuz i wanna leave it all
I'm talkin' of leavin'
Leavin' it all
Blowin' it out
Down a thousand miles of road
Saw my dream
I seen me wealthy
I changed my face to face the demons
I gave my soul away for what i had become
I pushed that dream away so far and now it's gone
I'm gonna leave it
Leavin' it all
Gonna blow it out
Down ten thousand miles of road
I go all day outside the mind
Instead of wastin' any time
Is someone i can see for miles
If i can only cross the line
Inside a galaxy
Am i waiting for someone to come
And find
And find me
I won't wait
No
Yeah
