Once upon a time ago, you know I lived in fear
Of this world and what lies beyond
The Darkness

But then He came and took it away
The fear inside has been replaced
With a knowledge of what soon will be
For the lost and found

And then His spirit got ahold of me
And brought me to my knees
And then He looked inside this heart of mine
And found sin's disease

But then He cam and took it away
The fear inside has been replaced
With a knowledge of what soon will be
For the lost and the found

Can I see you with your lights off, see you with your lights off
Are you afraid of the dark?
I bet your living with your lights on, livin with your lights on, kid
Cause your afraid of the dark

Our world keeps gettin crazier, but that's alright
Cause I read the last chapter, and we win the fight

Cause when He came He took it away
The fear inside has been replaced
With the knowledge of what soon will be
For the lost and the found

And now I'm pressing on to the mark
Try to be more like Him
And let my light shine in the dark
Cause there's no more sin

Cause when He cam He took it away
The fear inside has been replaced

With a knowledge of what soon will be
For the lost and the found

Can I see you with the lights off, see you with your
lights off
Are you afraid of the dark?
I bet you livin' with your lights on, living with your lights on
Cause your afraid of the dark

Look at me now I'm not afraid of the dark, no
I'm living in the light of the One who saved me
Look at me now I'm not afraid of the dark no
I'm livin in the light of the one who saves
The lost and the found

It's a simple choice now to reign or burn Cause they'll be no hidin when the lights come up at that Great White Throne

Cause when He came He took it away
The price in full is already paid
And all that's left for you to say
Is am I the lost or the found?

Look at me now I'm not afraid of the dark, no
I'm livin in the light of the One who saved me
Look at me now I'm not afraid of the dark, no
I'm livin in the light of the one who saves me
The lost and the found
