I could give you more
I could give you more
You do not know now
But you will come to know it soon

I can give you what you need
I can give you what you need
Nothing you could ask could be so vast
So tell me
oh, how could ever touch a girl like you?

Watching every bath you take
Running down the fire escape
Crying till my shoulders ache
I'm waiting for my heart to break

You can be a little cruel
You can be so cool
When I give you so much
And you give such a little
Oh, what does a man like me have to do to spend a little time with a girl like you?

Watching every bath you take
Running down the fire escape
Crying till my shoulders ache
I'm waiting for my heart to break

Watching every bath you take
Running down the fire escape
Crying till my shoulders ache
I'm waiting for my heart to break

Waiting for my heart to break
Waiting for my heart to break
Waiting for my heart to break
Waiting for my heart to break
