Wonder why

I feel you in the air
I feel you everywhere
I feel you even though you're far away I know it isn't fair that I didn't care about you when you needed me to stay

I lost all I had
and made you feel sad
I lost all your love and that's why I feel bad

Wonder why
why I kept my love inside
wonder why
now I cry
wonder why
couldn't we try one more time
wonder why
my, oh my

I see you all the time
it isn't fair to me
somehow everyone looks just like you you couldn't know my mind you gave your best in me in return I kept my love from you

I lost all I had
and made you feel sad
I lost all your love and that's why I feel bad

Wonder why
why I kept my love inside
wonder why
now I cry
wonder why
couldn't we try one more time
my, oh my

If I could just get it through to you that, baby, my love was really true then maybe you'd give me one more chance just one more chance

Wonder why
why I kept my love inside
wonder why
now I cry
wonder why
couldn't we try one more time
my, oh my

Wonder why, wonder why, wonder why
wonder why, wonder why, wonder why.....
