Even though i met you only recently i find myself falling in love with you i dont know quite how to put this decently but what's the chance that you can love me too?

who who who who who
and turned my gray sky blue why its you you you you you

like amorous lovebirds do who made my world seem new tasted you you you you you you make me feel like i'm seventeen again you make everything beautiful seem true i can't wait to go to sleep and dream again cause every dream i dream is a dream of dreamy little you

you make my world seem new

you make the world go round the sun go up and down the flowers bloom in may the children laugh and play shall we choose the day?

why its you you you you
