I'm just a passerby passing by
All the people sitting on their rooftops in the mid-day sun

I know everything's complete
Even when it falls to my feet
Out of my mind out of my grasp

Hey stranger strangely walking
Please take all of my change
I'm sure I've wasted more than you

I'm sorry I don't feel like talking
Don't take it personally
There isn't a soul out there that would make me change

[Chorus]
I cant tell you if there's an answer
So let it be

Walking down California street
The life breathes beneath my feet
If I close my eyes the violins start to play

If it's all a mystery
I seem to have figured it out
Even though I haven't got a clue

With a smile on my face
My heart's in the right place
A walk like this makes days seem too short

The people lie awake
Short pants and summer dresses
Everything I see makes perfect sense

[Chorus 2x]

How can life be complete
Since it's not an entity
That comepletly completes any [soliniear change]?

When the pieces are in one piece
Little pieces fall away
It never seems to end
So let it be

[Chorus 2x]

so let it be
so let it be
so let it be
so let it be
