A long time ago
There's a story that I told
About being scared to death
It's been a long time
I thought that I was fine
But this undead voice keeps haunting
ME

It lurks in the trees
I can feel it watching me
And I'm fearing for my life
If you listen real close,
You'll hear it outside your window
It's going to find its way
IN

This is a story of frightening monsters -- of human origin --
Even the gods could not stop this inevitable force.

You can't ever kill it
So don't you even try
This is just the way your life ends
Everyone soon
Will find their own doom
With the untouchable force of Splatter
ROCK
ROCK
ROCK
ROCK
ROCK
ROCK
ROCK
