You've got move your feet to walk,
Enter a bus,
Exit all you know,
When the driver kicks you off,
You just tuck and roll,

You're the only one who knows,
Don't ask us which way you should go,
Grab the wheel and check the mirror,
Watch the old you disappear,

What they taught you,
Is only in your head,
Let go, it weighs you down,
Like the waves hit the shore,
Ten feet of snow,
It's time for you to dig yourself out,
We are in charge of what were heading for,
Ten feet of snow,
It's time for you to dig yourself out,

You think your up against the wall,
Brick by brick you can take it down,
Go off the map, change it all,
Theirs no such thing as a dead end,

Everybody thinks they know,
Best clear your head of bad advice,
Take your cues from deep inside,
Do something wrong, do something right,

What they taught you,
Is only in your head,
Let go, it weighs you down,
Like the waves hit the shore,
Ten feet of snow,
It's time for you to dig yourself out,
We are in charge of what were heading for,
Ten feet of snow,
It's time for you to dig yourself out,

Weights you down,

Let go, it weighs you down,
Like the waves hit the shore,
Ten feet of snow,
It's time for you to dig yourself out,

We are in charge of what were headed for,
Ten feet of snow(ten feet of snow),
It's time for you to dig yourself out,
Let go(let go), it weighs you down, (it weighs you down)
Like the waves hit the shore,
Ten feet of snow(ten feet of snow), it's time for you to dig yourself out,

Let go (let go), It weighs you down,
Let go (let go), like the waves hit the shore,
Let go (let go), it weighs you down
Let go (let go)
