"Dark Night of the Soul"

Caress the deceitful snake, The one who speaks in tongues
Of all my devastating truths, Collect the power of my dreams
A fiendish lust a hallow trust.
Cast by the devious fire demons, A thousand whorish
tongues
In Black Death, salute the visions, Mayhem of living, infected blood.
In this, dark night of the soul!!

(Chorus)

I close my eyes to the world, Kiss my skinless corpus, Make me revel in your weak souls, Make me feast on your nightmares.

[Chorus]

Death's heads enshrined in my head, I deal exclusively in mysterious pain

The mystical blood runs tonight, Gifting through your inner thighs,
I seal the orbits of misanthropy.
A moment of inconceivable lust
