Far away, I feel your beating heart
All alone, beneath the crystal stars
And staring into space, what a lonely face
I'll try to find my place with you

Chorus:

What a beautiful smile
Can It stay for a while
On this beautiful night
We'll make everything right
My beautiful love
My beautiful love

Larger then the moon, my love for you
World's collide, as heaven pulls us through
The secret of the world is written in the stars
I'm carrying your heart in mine

What a beautiful smile
Can It stay for a while
On this beautiful night
We'll make everything right
My beautiful love

Maybe a greater thing will happen
Maybe all will see
Maybe our love will catch like fire
As it burns through me

Maybe a greater thing will happen
Maybe all will see
Maybe our love will catch like fire
As it burns through me

Maybe a greater thing will happen
Maybe all will see
Maybe our love will catch like fire
As it burns through me

What a beautiful smile
Can It stay for a while
On this beautiful night

We'll make everything right

What a beautiful smile
Can It stay for a while
On this beautiful night
We'll make everything right
My Beautiful la-la-la-la-love
La-la-la-la-love
My beautiful la-la-la-la-love
La-la-la-la-love
My beautiful love
