"HEY! HEY!"

Try living just a little bit

"HEY! HEY!"

And sing just for the hell of it

Just pull your heart up off the ground

Yelling out three cheers

We're sounding silence to warn everyone around

And now we're running from the life we know

Making the sacrifice

We stand above a prize that can't evade us now

Listening to broken sounds

That our past has left spread across the ground

Waking up to everyday

With this feeling chasing me

Get up! Get up!

And shake your fists now

Step up! Step up!

And sing it so loud

Get up! Get up!

And scream your lungs out

All of the time we've pieced this all together

So take a step into the crowd

Letting your guard down now

These walls are breaking up and falling to the ground

Dare to whisper out a word of doubt

Take in a deep breath now

Forget that time is lost, and sign up for the night

Tearing down the broken seams

Of a past that's been hanging over me

Waking up to everyday

With this feeling chasing me

Get up! Get up!

And shake your fists now

Step up! Step up!

And sing it so loud

Get up! Get up!

And scream your lungs out
All of the time we've pieced this all together

Get up! Get up!
And shake your fists now
Step up! Step up!
And sing it so loud
Get up! Get up!
And scream your lungs out
All of the time we've pieced this all together

All of the time we've spent
All of the time we've pieced this all together
All of the time we've spent, we've spent
And I know that it's you that's watching
All of the time we've spent
All of the time we've pieced this all together
All of the time we've spent, we've spent
And I know that it's you that's watching
And I hope that it's you that's watching

"HEY! HEY!"
Try living just a little bit
"HEY! HEY!"
And sing just for the hell of it

Get up! Get up!
And shake your fists now
Step up! Step up!
And sing it so loud
Get up! Get up!
And scream your lungs out
All of the time we've pieced this all together

Get up! Get up!
And shake your fists now
Step up! Step up!
And sing it so loud
Get up! Get up!
And scream your lungs out
All of the time we've pieced this all together

"HEY! HEY!"
Try living just a little bit
And sing just for the hell of it

"HEY! HEY!"
Try living just a little bit
And sing just for the hell of it
