Sometimes I go down
To old Chinatown
And just walk around
Just wander around

Where amber lights gleam
And blue shadows fall
Just dream an old dream
Of my China doll

Her silk Chinese coat
Her little blue fan
Coral pink lips
And tiny pale hand

Oh, my China doll
My lonely tears fall
I'll never forget you
Never forget you
My China doll

Sometimes I go down
And just hang around
And just hang around
A boat China bound

Oh, my China doll
My lonely tears fall
I'll never forget you
Never forget you
My China doll
My China doll
