Waking from a dream
Will it disappear
Can you look me in the eye, tell me do you see a trace of fear
Crawling out of bed in my head I can't handle the day
I was hoping for release, oh give me peace, just get out of my way

On and on and on and on we fly
I live and I laugh and I cry
So doctor take a hammer to my broken heart
Won't you tell me why I've got trouble on my mind

Try to read the meaning of a song on a spent coffee cup
It said life's a contradiction holy water from a dirty jug Tried impressing honeys with the monies that I'd already spent
Crying to a hobo I'm in trouble cause I ain't got no rent

Ever feel they are dragging you under, premonition I'm going
Held the 12 but they dealt me a king to deny

On and on and on and on we fly
I live and I laugh and I cry
Hey doctor take a hammer to my broken heart
I will show you why I've got trouble on my mind

We could have it all, we could have it all
We could have it all but it's falling through our hands
Help me to understand, oh
Help me to understand

On and on and on and on we fly
I live and I laugh and I cry
So doctor take a hammer to my broken heart
For I'm wondering why, I've got trouble going...

On and on and on and on we fly
I live and I laugh and I cry
So doctor take a hammer to my broken heart

Won't you tell me why, I've got trouble on my mind
