

The Answer "Revolutions"

The future is uncertain
And I've got to see
So tell me what you're planning
Planning for you and me

Turn up that silent revolution
Tune into the sound that's in your head
Not just yet

Sister you've got to stop screaming
Step out into the light
You know, you know time's a healer
Sister dry your eyes

Turn up that silent revolution
Tune into the sound that's in your head
We've got no time for quick solutions
Music for the people will soon be dead
Soon it will be dead

Say what you want, say what you want, say what you want
Don't you believe that we need to start a revolution
Tune into the sound that's in your head
We got no time for quick solutions
Music for the people will soon be dead, yeah

We got no time for quick solutions
We got no time at all

Music for the people
