"French Exit"

Every time we speak
You are spitting in my mouth
If I don't take you somewhere else
I'm gonna pull my teeth right out

Every time we meet
You are shrieking in my ear
If I don't take you somewhere else
You're gonna make this insincere
Come on

Everyone I've loved
Kept me tangled in my heart
You'll tie that knot a bit too loose
Not enough to tease apart heart
Come on

Everyone I hold
Holds me strangled sweet and small
I'm not a puppy you'll take home
Don't bother trying to fix my heart
