Chances always arriving,
Passing by like cars in the distance
Takes me out of the moment,
And I lose myself in the headlights

I'm peeling off my labels
I'm peeling off my labels

Civilize me and tame me
Teach me all of your facts and your fictions
Throw me into cold water
When I come out I'll be numb with clarity

I'm peeling off my labels
I'm peeling off my labels

The need for distraction
Has some use tonight
So let's get out from the covers
And feel something new tonight

I'm peeling off my labels
I'm peeling off my labels
Let's take some chances
Let's take our chances on tonight
Let's take some chances
Let's take our chances on tonight
I'm peeling off my labels
I'm peeling off my labels
