He whispers softly into her ear,
Says all the things you'd want to hear
From a lover or one you'd spend your life with,
But he is not one like that
Take her to the bar, buys her another rum & coke
Goes outside so her can have a smoke
Clutches her arm as he hails a cab
And as they collapse together, he begins to tell her,

"I swear I'll love you
With all of my heart
I swear I'll need you
"cause I've never felt like this before"

She awakens, finds her hair's a mess
Her head's still cloudy and she can't find her dress
He makes her breakfast, has her out by noon
And says, "Hey maybe we should do this again some time soon"
One week later not a call's returned
She thinks, "Hey maybe this is what it's like to get burned."
One year later she sees him out and he says,
"Baby this is what I'm all about..."

"I swore I'd love you
With all of my heart
And I knew I'd need you
Until I got what I want
And I swore I'd love you
With all of my heart
And I knew I'd need you
Until I got what I want from you."

I swore I'd love you
With all of my heart
And I knew I'd need you
Until I got what I want
And I swore I'd love you
With all of my heart
And I knew I'd need you

Until I got what I want from you
