In the misty garden
Frozen leaves are posed like mannequins
They wanna see the sunrise
Flashing fingers catch the morning light

I wanna be there like that
Following the day, following the day

On the distant sunset
How a bird can lift it's wings like that
Such an act of bravery
In the presence of such majesty

I wanna be there like that
Following the day, following the day

You know I see the mistery between you and me
With such clarity it blows me away
You know that we've got history between you and me
And I don't wanna see us throw it away
Oh no

On the twisting highway
Headlamps and moonlight light the way
I'm gonna drive right through the night
When you wake up I'll be sleeping there right by your side

I wanna be there like that
Following the day, following the day

You know I see the mistery between you and me
With such clarity it blows me away
You know that we've got history between you and me
And I don't wanna see us throw it away
Oh no

I wanna be there with you
Following the day, following the day

You know I see the mistery between you and me
With such clarity it blows me away

You know that we've got history between you and me
And I don't wanna see us throw it away
Oh no

You know I see the mistery between you and me
With such clarity it blows me away
You know that we've got history between you and me
And I don't wanna see us throw it away
Oh no
