Seven stars, in the sky, in the sky
You're feeling sociable.
Silver stars in your eyes, in your eyes,
You feel emotional.
And you don't even know my name,
And I know every constellation.

Simple lives we once left behind,
We're so distracted now.
Secret lives we have lived inside,
We're going backwards now.
And you don't even know my name,
And I know every constellation.

So you know the rhyme,
So you know the rhyme,
Do you know the reasons that you are deprived? (?)
So you know the time,
So you know the time,
Do you know the seasons in your mind? (?)

(We're going backwards now)

Silver scars in your hand, in your hand.
I know it's seasonal.
Several times I have heard your demand.
You're so unreasonable.
And you don't even know my name,
And I know every constellation.

So you know the rhyme,
So you know the rhyme,
Do you know the reasons that you are deprived? (?)
So you know the time,
So you know the time,
Do you know the seasons in your mind? (?)

No you don't even know my name,
And I know every constellation.

So you know the rhyme,

So you know the rhyme,
Do you know the reasons that you are deprived? (?)
So you know the time,
So you know the time,
Do you know the seasons in your mind? (?) (x2)

(We're going backwards now)
