You seem to know a thing
Or two about keeping me away from you
Now I'm afraid
You're in over your head
This second guessing has got to end

Are you ready to give up
Everything that we have?
Admit you can't commit to me or anything else
And don't call it love if it scares you away
So what are you waiting for?

I can be your umbrella
Baby, so get over yourself and get under me
When you're feeling under the weather,
I'll rescue you whenever you're in need
I can be your umbrella
Baby, so get over yourself and get under me
When you're feeling under the weather,
I'll shelter you from any storm we see

You thought this would be easy,
But I won't let you let me go
Run into my arms or just run away
You keep leading me on
But girl your feelings can change
Let this be the beginning, or let this be the end

Your lips tremble when they brush against mine
Your breathing quickens whenever I walk by There's something you see in me that you've never found before
So what's keeping you away?
