maybe im not ready for this and you know it maybe im too scared to tell you what i really think and its not fair to stay together cause of regrets we might have dont want to fall asleep alone

but do i want to wake up with you?
im only trying to be completely honest.

so i guess this is the ending or a beautiful mistake and if we both agree that we shouldnt be together why does it hurt so much?
and i feel like i lost my closest friend

but do i want to wake up with you?
i hope youre happy
and completely lonely.

there i am standing all alone on sydney harbor bridge and you know i would jump into the fucking ocean if it meant i was truly capable of being satisfied will i ever be? did i just give up the best thing i ever had?

but do i want to wake up with you?
i hope youre happy

im only trying to be completely honest.
