I need a girl who like to go to shows I need a girl that won't make fun Of my Clothes. I'm looking for a special girl who Wants to go all over the world, If you're my special girl won't you Let me know? Do you have a boyfriend? Or possibly a girlfriend? Cause! I'm lonely all the time And I wish that it would end. I need a girl that likes to stay out late, We'd share a cocktail, wouldn't it be great? If only this were true Then I would fall in love with you, I'm looking for a special girl...
Could it be you? I could write a stupid love song, And sing it all across the world But it wouldn't mean a thing.
Until I find my special girl. When will I find my special girl?
