Tonight I finally get the chance
To show you what I'm feeling
So now I'm taking out the time
To know you and your latest trends

Don't even get me started
On the topic of lovers eyes
Their attempts are so off-target
They don't know what is it to try

Baby, save me
Tell me that you wanna take me
To the place where we kissed the sky
Rain by day, shoot stars by night
[x2]

Now that we made it up into the sky
I've been wondering why
Why can't we keep away from everything
Stay high, just you and I

I'll make sure everything is all right
Sit tight
Don't you say a word
See the earth turn
Take a breath and stare like you
Have never, ever seen the world

Don't even get me started
On the topic of lovers eyes
Their attempts are so off-target
They don't know what is it to try

Baby, save me
Tell me that you wanna take me
To the place where we kissed the sky
Rain by day, shoot stars by night
[x2]

Baby, tell me what you want
What you need
Everything you've never seen

But you dreamed of a place out of space
We'll erase and be free in a scene
To a world that's been turned all around, upside-down
Never knowing what's around
Every corner of our horrible story
I'm glad we both found the ground
Safe and sound

Don't even get me started
On the topic of lovers eyes
Their attempts are so off-target
They don't know what is it to try

Baby, save me
Tell me that you wanna take me
To the place where we kissed the sky
Rain by day, shoot stars by night
[x2]
