

Maysa "Rain Drops"

Visit "Rain Drops" on MotoLyrics.com

I feel alright
As long as the sun is bright
Soon as the clouds come rolling by
Big tears form in my eyes

Can't explain
How I feel when the sky is grey
I sit alone and I just pray
For a sunny day

Rain drops keep falling down
Your voice keeps calling me
Such a familiar sound
Those rainy nights keep haunting me

You're still on my mind
Even after all this time
I've tried to stay away
Move on to a brand new day

It's such a shame
You really couldn't make up your mind
I couldn't wait another day
For your love
