The things that run in my blood
I just gave up so fast
I've got nothing left to give
Secrets don't keep themselves
I'm sick of hiding the answer from the question here
What did I find in my head
And no conviction
And a fire that had gone out
That lit up when the radio signal went out

Chorus

Is this the end of the world?
I can't tell
It's been like this so long
Is this still you by my side?
I can't decide
If you were here at all
Is this the end of the world?
Is this the end of the world?

Lets look back,
I can't remember when,
The last time anything I said, meant anything,
But things change, things change, things change
Just as I slipped into the gaps between reception bars and I found myself one day

Chorus

Is this the end of the world?
I can't tell
It's been like this so long
Is this still you by my side?
I can't decide
If you were here at all
Is this the end of the world?
Is this the end of the world?

Don't look back,
And set traps,
For myself to keep me in check,

Don't back track,

Realise that,
The best defence is attack.

Chorus
Is this the end of the world?
I can't tell
It's been like this so long
Is this still you by my side?
I can't decide
If you were here at all
Is this the end of the world?
Is this the end of the world?
