Morning comes and I have spent
Every decent thing I am
Pockets empty
Now it's you and me
I've been foolish, rash, unruly
Taking pride in all I have Taken from you
Now it's you and me

This is Love
When I give my heart to
Everyone but you
This is Love
When I have turned my back
Away from you
This is Love
When I have left you for the Selfish things I do
This is Love
That you would still love me,
In spite of me

Seconds pass and I think back
To every time that I have said
I am sorry
Now it's you and me
So can I say these words again
Even with the things I've done
I broke your heart
Now it's you and me

Morning comes and I think back
To every time that I've said
I am sorry
