So take a good look at my face (little mama come closer)
You'll see my smile looks out of place (out of this world)
If you look closer it's easy to trace (so easy baby)
The tracks of my tears

I said you got me in a spell, did you go to Hogwarts?
You got me hypnotized like mind control
You got me in a box like I'm a mime
And at the same time, you're all up on my mind
People don't understand, I need you like a fiend to a drug
Like a rope to a tug, like me to your love
But this is still draining me like water in a tub
Cuz I just can't keep running back to your love
Did we just make up to break up? And are we faking?
Cuz when we make up, we just break up
I said our love's a little bubbly I think it needs some makeup
We better get Pro-Active so we don't break out, yeah

So take a good look at my face (little mama come closer)
You'll see my smile looks out of place (out of this world)
If you look closer it's easy to trace (so easy baby)
The tracks of my tears

Giving up on my heart again, but a dream can be pretend
Sitting, waiting, wishing, missing all the love your giving
All the money in the world couldn't buy a heart like this I'm certain
Cuz girl you lift me up, before I hit the solid ground
And you always save your lovin' for me
Oh I can't wait to get on that plane to get back to you
(Oh I can't wait to get on that plane to get back to you)
Oh I can't wait to get on that plane to get back to you
(Oh I can't wait to get on that plane to get back to you)

So take a good look at my face (little mama come closer)

You'll see my smile looks out of place (out of this world)
If you look closer it's easy to trace (so easy baby)
The tracks of my tears

We know what we got, so forget the haters
We need to zoom to the future to see them later
Translate espanol we need escapa
So we can get to the future and ditch the haters like what
(Oh I can't wait to get on that plane to get back to you)

So take a good look at my face (little mama come closer)
You'll see my smile looks out of place (out of this world)
If you look closer it's easy to trace (so easy baby)
The tracks of my tears
