I've been waiting, dreaming, I wake up in the evening
I'm feeling by myself because I can't see you breathing
I feel so alone tell me what I need to do to bring you back home

Yeah, because I'm feeling clueless, you left without a trace, such a hurry, shoeless

I know I can be deceiving maybe even the reason you've feel so defeated ah now ya leavin

And I gotta tell you how I feel, I got keep it real, Erkel - Jaleel

(I will not say another lie to you) who do I do for? yea baby you

No other can ever treat me like you

And that's why I write this song for you

Your my vaccine baby I'm swine flu

Tell me what you wanna do cause baby I'll do it

I hold, the weight of the word cuz you are, floating around in the clouds

Oh this, sunburn, permanent skin, that keeps the weather intact

And the rain from giving in Girl you know it's not too cold, I think it's getting warmer tonight

(Under the ceiling) Oh oh oh

Now the sun is burning, like a heart into the furnace

And I swear we gotta fire started here

Just say my name, one last time

Before returning to that winter wonderland in your mind

Cuz I'll flip, the globe upside down, just to pull you out Just to pull you out

I hold, the weight of the word cuz you are, floating
around in the clouds

weather intact
