

The Avett Brothers

"Standing With You"

Visit "Standing With You" on MotoLyrics.com

Well it's been a pretty rough couple of years but I think things will change for us, and I'll always look but you before me, unless of course it's dangerous.

Standing with you, I'm standing with you I might miss the rhythm but I'm catching the tune, and that's something for me,
yeah that's something for me.

Well I told you I won't make the same mistake again, but you know I'll probably will,
and so many night go down like a flash from a camera without any film.

But we don't need to remember every single moment we've had, and I don't need understanding for every single moment I've had

As long as I'm standing with you, I'm standing with you I might miss the rhythm but I'm catching the tune,
and that's something for me,
yeah that's something for me.

And I'll be walking with you, and walking with you I might miss the meaning but I'm catching the truth and that's pretty good for me yeah that's pretty good for me.

Well it's been a pretty rough couple of years
but I think things will change for us, Yeah it's been a pretty rough couple of years but I think things will change for us.

Visit The Avett Brothers page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.