I feel so empty I don't know where I am
I feel so sorry when I see Your hands
I feel so sad how can I go on
I feel so bad I find myself here

I don't know why I still cry whenever I fall
I've seen all my dreams pass me by
I know You believe in me
And I will be alright
With or without this fear
I need You here beside me

I feel so heavy how can i explain
I feel so lonely more than I convey
I feel so down where did I go wrong
I feel so tired I find myself here

I still know You and I will trust in You
I still love You and I will follow You
I still need You and I will live for You
I still want You and I would die for You
