Hello idiot there's another morning
Get on the bus and yet you're satisfied
Grounded on the safer side of life

No quarrels and no illusions
Victims of mass confusion flee the tide
Cover 'cause the waves are getting high

Another tragedy, a lack of sympathy
Keep drowning while I have that drink on you my friend
Keep searching for a shore while I stay quiet and bored
And if you don't believe in fake I do

Are you ready for the blockheadshow?

Hello idiot there's another warning
To keep you safe from where you're going to Curious about what you gonna do

Cause all the fuckin' doors are locked now Stuck in between and you're not getting through Don't you wait I'll never get there too

Another tragedy, a lack of sympathy
Keep drowning while I have that drink on you my friend
Keep searching for a shore while I stay quiet and bored
And if you don't believe in fake I do

Are you ready for the blockheadshow?

That's when my head aches from all the chaos in my mind
That's when my head aches from all the chaos in my mind
