Just a little bit of love,
That is all we need for the second day.
Is it hard to be a friend,
For a little while in a simple way?
Just a little bit of love
And a friendly face makes the world look bright.
And a shining star above
Will help you through the darkest night.

When you feel down,
Don't sit and cry the whole day through.
Don't wonder why
It all must happen to you.
Put on your coat, come over.
No, it can't be that bad.
Put on a smile, don't look so sad.

Just a little bit of love,
That is all we need for the second day.
Is it hard to be a friend,
For a little while in a simple way?
Just a little bit of love
And a friendly face makes the world look bright.
And a shining star above
Will help you through the darkest night.

Don't walk away.
When times get rough you can't hold on.
Maybe some day
You'll be alright where you belong.
Put on your coat, come over.
No, it can't be that bad.
Put on a smile, don't look so sad.

Just a little bit of love,

That is all we need for the second day.
Is it hard to be a friend,
For a little while in a simple way?
Just a little bit of love
And a friendly face makes the world look bright.
And a shining star above
Will help you through the darkest night.

Just a little bit of love,
That is all we need for the second day.
Is it hard to be a friend,
For a little while in a simple way?
Just a little bit of love
And a friendly face makes the world look bright.
And a shining star above
Will help you through the darkest night.

And a shining star above
Will help you through the darkest night.
