Just let me be, don't pretend we are friends
I left you hurt, don't call me again
Cold turkey never felt so fine
My thirst for you is running dry

'Cause I've slept around
When you thought I was yours
All that time I was with
I was with the boy next door

The things I've done, no forgiveness now
I know I might end up in hell
Life is short and sweet, they say
But I've been told in the end I'll pay

'Cause I've slept around
When you thought I was yours
All that time I was with
I was with the boy next door

Many times I tried to be true
But you know it's a lie
Endorphins, heartaches
All that shit is a chemical waste on you

'Cause I've slept around
When you thought I was yours
All that time I was with
I was with the boy next door
