A flower on the right side of her hair
That we could make a lovely pair

In an old Spanish town
Is where I found true love

We vowed to love each other
Til the end of time
One day soon I hope that
Church bells will chime

In an old Spanish town
Is where I found true love

And after we are wed
We will raise a real good family
No matter what is said
We will be together for eternity

We vowed to love each other
Til the end of time
One day soon I hope that
Church bells will chime

In an old Spanish town
Is where I found true love

And after we are wed
We will raise a real good family

We vowed to love each other
Til the end of time
One day soon I hope that
Church bells will chime

In an old Spanish town
Is where I found true love
True love, true love
No matter what is said
We will be together for eternity
