Some times it's pulling teeth just to face the facts
When what you really want will never come to pass
So you mainline denial boot it down like so much smack
And it keeps you grinning on like a stupid ass

Cheap trinkets don't lie and neither did I
I gave you my heart you just waved goodbye
Cheap trinkets don't lie but I wish that they'd try
Cause I ain't found a drink to was away your eyes

The time you give your heart you go and take the chance
That it'll hit the floor and not end in another's hands
So let me tell you all you people let me warn you all in advance
Please won't you heed the words of a broken man

Cheap trinkets don't lie and neither did I
I gave you my heart you just waved goodbye
Cheap trinkets don't lie but I wish that they'd try
Cause I ain't found a drink to was away your eyes

The little fuckers don't like but I wish that they'd try
The little fuckers don't like but I wish that they'd try
Cheap trinkets don't lie but I wish that they'd try
The little fuckers don't like but I wish that they'd try
