Emily,
Don't you know you stole my man
Emily,
I thought you were my friend
Emily, Emily
The scars on your face
Do not compare to the ones left on my heart

Emily
Don't know how you stand to smile around me
Oh Emily,
You stole everything from me just cause of destiny
I don't want to hear you say my name anymore
Emily

Emily
I hope that you and Sam are happy,
But that don't mean I am
Emily
Don't invite me to the wedding
Unless you really want to see me cry
Emily
