Every night
When the Sun goes down
Behind the clouds
I close
My eyes and
Remember the things we
Could have had

But I know I tried
There's just something in your eyes
I couldn't deny

O! caroline
I just can't wait to get you
Off my mind

Caroline!
Warn me
That you'll steal
My heart next time

You're in my head
Your eyes, your lips,

You knocked me dead

My heart, like lead,
Fell rapidly
Down to my knees
I was feelin' fine
But I know this kind
Ain't tellin' no lies

O! caroline
I just can't wait to get you
Off my mind

Caroline!
Warn me that you'll steal
My heart next time

(Beautiful violin solo)

(Followed by badass guitar pickin')

(And then some wildly awesome plinkin' on them keys)

(Then even more violin, mashed with the git, and the board)

(Ears and souls call this lovely, yes they do)

O! every night when the sun
Goes down
Behind the clouds
I close my eyes
And remember the things
We could have had

But I know I tried
Just something in your Eyes I couldn't deny

O! caroline
I just can't wait
To get you off my mind

Caroline!
Warn me that you'll
Steal my heart
Next time

Caroline!
Warn me that you'll
Steal my heart
Next time
