I stole a kiss from the prettiest girl in town
I stole a kiss from the prettiest girl in town
Said she was waiting on her old man
And I probably shouldn't hang around
But I stole a kiss from the prettiest girl in town

I see her face nearly every place I go
See her pretty sweet lips no matter where I go
I thought my heart was made of stone cold granite
But I guess it just goes to show
I see her face nearly every place I go

I got a feeling that she's gonna lose that man
Got a sneaky feeling that she's gonna drop that man
If I could get her to make some time
I'd give her all the love I can
I got a feeling that she's gonna lose that man

I got a date with the prettiest girl in town
I got a date with the prettiest girl in town
I know someday she'll break my heart
And I'll be wearing the losers crown
But I got a date with the prettiest girl in town
