Hope you don't mind
If I just sit here a while
I've been off the beaten track
For a long long time
Don't know if I was misled
Or just got lost
But I know nothing's ever
Never gonna be OK again no how

'Cause everything is just closing in
I don't know that I have one single friend
Not one single friend

My mom thinks I need a religion
I think I need a shower
And something to eat
Can I bum another cigarette
And thanks for the listening to me
You know I don't like to steal
But I've got needs
And I know nothing's ever
Never gonna be ok again no how

'Cause everything is just closing in
I don't know that I have one single friend
Not one single friend
Not one single friend
Not one single friend
Not one single friend
