To the North~

South~

East ~

West~

Be blessed be blessed be blessed be blessed"

Welcome to

The New

B.E.U.

We 3

Stand where there was a 4 before

But they'll be

No worries cause we're Warriors...

In this music revolution

Here's our lyrical solution

To the industry's pollution

It's artistic evolution and

Fusion in the genre game

No ~ Nothing will ever be the same

The situation ~ has changed

Since we've been "Home on the Range"

A tricycle in this circus

Circumventing the old course

A musical force to be reckoned

Riding high on a horse of a different color

One song blends to another and poetic elocutions often rise from the source

No remorse~

No corporate complications

Radio propagation props to friends and relations

To the Suits ~ here's the roots of our true foundation

We transformed what came before into our own reincarnation

We are genius, like the Phoenix

Rising from the ash

Love and History between us

Learned our lessons from the past

We were green on the scene

Now our hooks make us cash

This time the we shall be first and the first shall be last

Spoken:

"So stop living in the past

For this is your present

... And it is a gift."

We forgive and forget and we let the rest go

Cause ya live and ya let live

Ya learn and ya grow

That's how we slowed down back in our home town

We got to know ourselves and look at the flow we found

Everything happens for a reason

And everything comes in it's due season, so

Everybody ~ Everybody clap your hands now

We're about to take command

Of this vision ~ with precision

Cause we're wise enough to make our own "Decisions"

We get our needs met ~ Sowed our seeds ~ Fed

Watered ~ Pruned and Bloomed into trees

We let our light shine ~ prism rainbows thru showers

Like a kiss on a flower it's our appointed hour to

Empower

Embrace a true moment

Make what we're making for our own enjoyment

No agendas in this hacienda

Just transcend the hits with Zen-like innuendos

Crescendo! This bangers a blend of gender~race~color~creed

Made with Peace ~Love & Harmony

(Harmony~Harmony and Love and Love)

Cause Love is all ya need ~ Love is all ya need

Spoken:

- "May the light within me honor the light within you"
- "Peace be with you (and also with you)"
- "Namaste & Amen"
