I fell asleep in the silence
Before the stream fights the fire
Free in the world that you've given
Lay in the sand, the water still calls
Still calls
Afraid of the dark that surrounds me
Hide in the dirt of the ground
Free of the wind that surrounds me
I'm not afraid to sleep in the night
Not afraid to sleep in the night
Free like a bird of the holders
Holdin the weight of the sun
I know the road that you've sent me
I know the way it's to one
Real like the bones in my body
Real like the flesh that covers the brain
It's real like the flesh that covers the brain
Wait for the cards that you've sent me
Before I will show you myself
Wait for the storm that comes to me
Maybe I'll just change my mind
Plea for the will of forgiveness
I'm not afraid to say I was wrong
I was wrong
Maybe I was so wrong
So wrong
