We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.

As daylight fades, we celebrate.
The end is near your end is here.
The night it brings us our fate,
Knee deep in mud we want your blood.

This isn't love, this is war,
This is the night we said,
We would be fighting for.
This isn't love, this is war,
This is the night we swore,
That we would call our own.

We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.

The fire burns, into the sky,
The sun goes down your end is here.
Lighting eyes in the night,
Be one of us be one of us.

This isn't love, this is war,
This is the night we said,
We would be fighting for.
This isn't love this is war,
This is the night we swore,
That we would call our own.

We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,

We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.

This isn't love, this is war,
This is the night we said,
We would be fighting for.

We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.

Screams

We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night,
We are the children.
We are the children of the night
We are the children.
