You said you had no reason
For men in your lifetime, baby
The love you had would have gotten away

You said if it's all the same
That's the way you would have it remain
You pick up some pieces here and there

Who do you think you're fooling
Running in your losing
Gonna pick you up off the ground

[CHORUS]
I'm gonna make you love me
I swear by the stars above me
And I'm gonna steal your heart away
I'm gonna make you love me
I swear by the stars above me
And I'm gonna steal your heart away

You think it was safe at a distance
To keep your heart from breaking
You think love is for those who care

And I know you've been hurt before
Because you locked the door
The least hurting person in bed?

Do you think I'm playing
Listen to what I'm saying
Gonna pick you up off the ground

[Repeat CHORUS 2x]
