GIRLS

The secret about boys is that they want you to like them

They want you to like them

They want you to like them

They want you to let them in

Let's... play... boys... chase... girls

Let's... play... boys... chase... girls

BOYS

The secret about girls is they want you to like them

They want you to like them

They want you to like them

They want you

The secret about girls is they want you to like them

They want you to like them

They want you to like them

They want you to think they're cool.
