Now I'm a little bit lonesome and just a little bit blue
I get a little bit welled up when I'm thinkin' of you
I guess I'm sayin' I miss you
It's sad to say by it's true
Now I'm a little bit lonesome and just a little bit blue

It doesn't happen too often, to find somebody who knows
Just what a real love feels like and how to make a love grow
I never knew where it went wrong
I only know that it's through
Now I'm a little bit lonesome and just a little bit blue

Yeah I'm a little bit lonesome, but I'm sure that it'll pass
Oh the beat of this blue heart is going to last and last
You said our love was forever
So I was countin' on you Now I know that I'll never, own anybody that's new Oh baby I ain't complaining but what you said was untrue
So I'm a little bit lonesome and just a little bit blue

Now I'm a little bit lonesome, but I'm sure that it'll pass
Oh the beat of this blue heart is going to last and last
untrue
So I'm a little bit lonesome and just a little bit blue

Yeah I'm a little bit lonesome and just a little bit blue
