Now if I'm coming on strong
It's cuz you're driving me crazy
And if I'm reading you wrong
Just let me know that I am

And if I'm carrying on
It's just because I can't help it
You see I've waited so long
Please don't you put me down

Whoever is making the rules
Is going to wind up the winner
I know the loser's the fool
Who never tries it
Who never give it a chance

We've been acquainted so long
But did you know I was feeling
A hurt so deep and so strong
Well then you I found

Whoever is making the rules
Is going to wind up the winner
I know the loser's the fool
Who never tries it
Who never give it a chance

I might have waited too long
To let you know what I'm feeling
Now baby baby you know
Just why I'm coming on strong
I'm coming on strong
I'm coming on strong
Why I'm coming on strong
