Driving at midnight and the moon is
Looking right at me
I can feel it settling down on me
Over me
Come deliver me from this night

When I left you standing so alone
Then I started wondering
But I don't mind saying it now
Oh please come to me
Come deliver me from this night

Ahh that love we had found
Well we drove it underground
Deliver me

This canyon's on fire now
And I'm wondering
How much longer will it be
Till it comes tumbling down
Over me
Come deliver me from this night

Ahh that love we had found
Well we drove it underground
Deliver me

Yeah all that love we had found
Well we drove it underground

Deliver us from our yesterdays
Hold us together if it can't be done
Deliver us from all that might be
If we get what we think we want

Ahh deliver me

Driving at midnight and the moon is still
Looking right at me
I can feel it settling down on me
Over me

Come deliver me from this night

Ahh that love we had found
Well we drove it underground
Deliver me

Oh please deliver me

Come on now deliver me

Come on now deliver me

Deliver me from this night

Deliver me

Deliver me

Come on come on come on now deliver me

From this night

Deliver me

Come on, come on deliver me

From this night
