I've often knocked upon a million doors
Before I find what I've been lookin for Lord give me hope, but to my surprise
She was standing right before my eyes

I've been lookin' for it for a long, long time
Always hoping that I just might find
A little girl with a lot of style
She for a while

It gives you everything and so much more
I finally found what I've been looking for
We get courage, we get love
Heart Of A Lion, Soul Of A Dove

When I shy away at the slightest touch
I'll bag it all if it hurts too much
I couldn't know that there'd ever be
Someone for her, someone for me

I can tell just the way that I feel
I ain't afraid cuz her love's so real
We got the courage, we got love
Heart Of A Lion, Soul Of A Dove

When I shy away at the slightest touch
And bag it all if it hurts too much
I couldn't know that there'd ever be
Someone for her, someone for me

I can tell just the way that I feel
I ain't afraid cuz her love's so real
We got the courage, we got love
Heart Of A Lion, Soul Of A Dove
Heart Of A Lion, Soul Of A Dove
