I believed you when I shouldn't
I believed when others wouldn't
I believe that I'm a fool for believing, fool for loving you

I can't believe how long it's taken
But I believe my heart is breaking
Cuz I believe I'm a fool for loving you

And I believe I find
Your love would be always mine
To all believers hope they find
They'e love has been oh so blind

If I believed for just one minute
Then as soon I'm right back in it
And I believe I'm a fool for loving you

And I believe I find
Your love would be always mine
To all believers hope they find
Their love has been oh so blind

I believed you when I shouldn't
I believed when others wouldn't
I believe that I'm a fool for believing, fool for loving you

Cuz I believe that I should go now
I believe with all my soul now
Yet I could I would believe you

Yes if I could I would believe in you
I believe in, say I believe in
I believe in well I believe in
Yes I believe in
Well I believe in
Yes I believe in
Cuz I believe in
I believe in
I believe in
