Well when something ain't jumping
That what I can't take
And even if a movin then I give it a shake
Well I don't want to rush you but I can't hide
And if it ain't rockin' then it ain't right

Well I don't mind a rollin on the way down to here
Things get away from me, you know how they get
Well I think you better move before I'm out of site
Cuz if it ain't a rockin' then it ain't right

It ain't right, I know, but it seems the only way to go
Could be wrong, even so
It's the only thing I know

I say a bless my soul cuz here I go

Well it ain't right, I know, seems the only way to go
I could be wrong, even so
It's the only way I know

Sometimes I like to hear a little, just to see what it does Seen my concentration isn't what it once was Oh I know I shouldn't, but I know I just might
Cuz if it ain't a rockin' then it ain't right

Well if it ain't a rockin', if it ain't a rockin'
If it ain't a rockin', it just ain't right
